- Take responsibility for the pastoral care of students within a specified area, referring problems on where they are complex or serious.
- Act as a Programme Leader / or undertake a leadership role where appropriate
- Actively contribute to enhancing the student experience.

Research Activities

- Undertake research or other agreed scholarly activity in order to contribute to the development of the subject.
- Prepare proposals and applications to external bodies, as required, to secure research funding and to generate additional income for the University.
- Write and publish results of innovative research to further the University's standing in the HE sector and in the wider community.
- Use initiative, creativity and judgement in the development of appropriate research methodologies that further scholarly activities in the area.
- Act as a referee and contribute to peer assessment for appropriate journals, as required.
- Supervise the work of taught postgraduate and/or research students, as required, to support the development of student research skills.

Academic Enterprise

- Participate in the development of internal and external partnerships in order to disseminate information, share best practice, establish opportunities for collaborative work and enhance the reputation of the University.
- Participate in networks in order to facilitate the exchange of information and best practice.
- Build relationships with external agencies and contacts in order to identify sources of funding and engage in collaborative work or projects that will generate income and enhance the reputation of the University.

- Extend and enhance the work of the department by taking a lead role in promoting the programmes and in encouraging staff to develop innovative ideas/strategies to support student recruitment and retention.

Service Provision

- Manage the demands of teaching, administration, research and scholarly activity to ensure that competing deadlines are met.
- Design, review and adapt unit content by interpreting student feedback and pre-empting needs in order to make input to the overall development of the programme.
- Update and improve course documentation and guidance materials as appropriate, in order to enhance the student experience and support student progression.
- Identify gaps in course content and programme structure with colleagues and devise creative solutions which meet the requirements of overarching teaching frameworks.
- Proactively and effectively engage with quality assurance procedures, contributing to papers as appropriate, to ensure that University standards are upheld.
- Collaborate with academic colleagues on subject, unit, and programme development and delivery within the department, and contribute to departmental strategic decision making to ensure that the curriculum portfolio remains current and the assessment procedures are relevant.
- Co-ordinate student events, as required, ensuring the effective use of time and resources.
- Assist in appropriate pre-entry, recruitment, selection and admissions activities (including Open Days and Visit Days) in order to promote the department and gain a better understanding of student needs and expectations.
- Support University processes, procedures and initiatives, for example participating in or chairing University committees, validation/accreditation panels and task and finish groups.

Team Working

- Attend Faculty, Department and Programme meetings/boards, as required, in order to contribute to the decision-making process and to develop productive working relationships within and across teams.
- Introduce new starters to the department by providing support and training on the skills, processes, systems and activities that are specific to the department.
- Provide feedback to colleagues via peer mentoring schemes to support the development of self and others and to ensure the continuous improvement of departmental performance
- Coordinate others and plan assessment deadlines and specific teaching arrangements to ensure student needs and expectations are met and that time and resources are used effectively.

Liaising and Networking

- Active engagement with professional and learned bodies e.g. participation in committees, working parties, conference/workshop organisation.

Personal Accountabilities

- Take responsibility to promote high levels of customer care within their own areas of work.

money services that optimise the use of resources and consider this when undertaking all duties and aspects of their role.

- Take responsibility for ensuring they have and continue to update their knowledge and skills to be effective in their roles.
- Participate in the PDR process, engaging in the setting of objectives in order to assist in the monitoring of performance and the development of the individual.
- Engage and participate in the Workload Allocation Model process to support the allocation of duties of the individual.
- Take responsibility for applying the University's Equal Opportunities Policy in their own area of responsibility and in their general conduct.
- Be required to undertake a specific Health & Safety role, commensurate with their grade, to support the University in meeting its statutory Health & Safety obligations. This could include acting as a DSE Assessor, First Aider, Fire Marshall or Departmental Safety Coordinator. The allocation of such roles will be subject to the provision of appropriate training and assessment of competence.
- With reasonable notice, be required to work at any of the University sites.
- Take responsibility to engage with the University's commitment to Environmental Sustainability in order to reduce its waste, energy consumption and carbon footprint.
- Undertake other relevant duties commensurate with the grade of the post as may be assigned by the Manager or University managers to support the development of the University. Such agreement should not be unreasonably withheld.
- Staff must be aware of the University's commitment to Sustainability
- All staff must promote healthy behaviour and positive mental health and wellbeing

Miscellaneous

The University is a signatory to the Researcher Development Concordat and Research Integrity Concordat. The post holder is expected to adhere to the requirements of this provision.

Review

This is a description of the job as it is presently constituted. This job description is intended to enable a flexible approach to be offered working across the University as required. It is subject to review and amendment in the light of changing needs of the University and to provide appropriate development opportunities. The procedure is conducted jointly by each manager in consultation with the individual whose job is being reviewed. All staff are expected to participate fully in such discussions. It is the University's aim to reach agreement to reasonable change, but if agreement is not possible, it reserves the right to insist on changes to the job description after consultation with the individual concerned.
